A Visitor-Friendly Church

Cody Francis, Ministerial Director

What do visitors think when they come to your church? Are there things that make them cringe? How can your church become a visitor-friendly church that paves the way from visitors to members?

Evangelistic Potential of Social Media

Andy Im, Communications Director

We will explore several ways social media can be utilized to impact your local community by making your local church's presence known in the community. Practical steps and considerations when making social media posts will also be considered.

Meeting the Needs in Your Community

Chelli Ringstaff, ACS/DR Director

Does your community know that you care about their needs? What are some ways that you can make a difference in your community? How can serving the needs of the community transition people into disciples of Jesus?

Reclaiming Missing Members

Justin Ringstaff, Executive Secretary

Does your church have missing members that need to be reconnected with the church and Jesus? How can you have an effective ministry that reaches out to missing members? Join us to find out how!

Church Curb Appeal

Tom Hubbard, Associate Ministerial Director

Like any home or business, a church with a beautiful outdoor space is more inviting and noticeable in a community. Curb appeal is not only outside, but inside. It expresses to members, guests, and our communities how we view God and our fellow mankind. Learn how to draw others more effectively to Christ by creating and maintaining an inviting, welcoming, and safe church.

Fostering Unity in the Church

Jim Micheff, President

How do you deal with difficult church issues? How should the church handle conflict? What are ways that you can foster unity and harmony in your church?

How to Fish in a Pond 3,000 Miles Away

Bob Stewart, Associate Ministerial Director

Spending precious local time and money to reach members of foreign-language-speaking groups may seem pointless to some. Why invest in this form of ministry when this group, by the second generation, may be assimilated into the American melting pot? Learn and discuss practical ways of ministering to foreign-language-speaking groups and how to avoid landmines along the way.

The Cure for the Common Sabbath School

Kameron DeVasher, Sabbath School & Personal Ministries Director

Is your Sabbath School ailing and in need of revival? Come discover how you can help breathe new life and vitality into an otherwise mundane program and make your Sabbath School ALIVE!
